Words and Music by James Bowyer

The musical score consists of two staves of music. The top staff uses a treble clef and common time (indicated by a '4'). The bottom staff uses a bass clef and common time (indicated by a '4'). The music is divided into measures by vertical bar lines. Measure 1 starts with a piano dynamic (p) and includes sixteenth-note patterns. Measure 2 continues the sixteenth-note patterns. Measure 3 begins with a forte dynamic (f), followed by a piano dynamic (p), and includes lyrics: "The World is". Measure 4 continues the sixteenth-note patterns. Measure 5 includes lyrics: "dark", "No Sun!", "No Moon!", and "I see". Measure 6 consists of sustained chords. Measure 7 starts with a forte dynamic (f) and includes lyrics: "no-thing!", "The sound-less Wind," (with a fermata over the end of the word 'Wind,'), "he", "sings", and "not Mid-". Measure 8 consists of sustained chords.
